A Forest Chapel For You

Distinctive converted chapel: a piece of heaven in the Forest of Dean

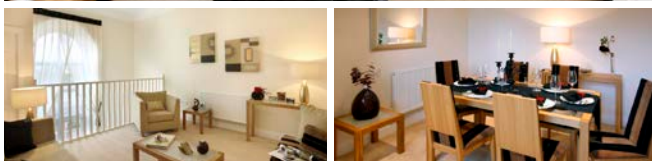

Life runs at your own pace in a chapel apartment. You can enjoy the adventure of a lifetime tackling rock faces, rivers, lakes and the forest. Or you can grab a book, take advantage of the space and the magnificent forest views, and lose yourself in a vacation of elegant and romantic isolation. Our chapel apartments make the most of the height and simple beauty of chapel architecture.

Pew Corner

Sleeps 4 | 2 | 2

This grand yet restful, two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment radiates peace. The decor is tasteful, the colours, calming; the soft furnishings, inviting. A ground-floor entrance rises to a spacious and well-equipped first-floor kitchen/diner. On the second floor is an airy galleried living area overlooking the double-height kitchen below.

The School Rooms

Sleeps 4 | 2 1

No disappointing break here! This memory making place will make you smile just by thinking about it, again and again.

Explore secret forest tracks, picnics with dramatic views, lungfuls of fresh air. Or, grab a book and combine elegance and sophistication with unashamed 21st-century comforts.

Cosy Treat

Sleeps 3 | 2 1

Escape from it all with a stay in this elegant and chic ground floor holiday apartment which forms part of a historical Chapel conversion in Cinderford, in the Wye Valley. This Cinderford property has two bedrooms and could be perfect for a romantic break for two, close to the Wye Valley, or for a couple with a child because there is the additional single bedroom. Attractively furnished, this holiday retreat in Cinderford could be just THE place for your next self-catering holiday.
